

WALS CONFERENCE 2014

Becoming Reflective Educators and Professionals of Learning

25 – 28 November 2014

Indonesia University of Education, Bandung
INDONESIA

The 10th Annual International Conference of World Association of Lesson Studies (WALS) will be held in Bandung, Indonesia from 25 – 28 November 2014. Its theme, Becoming Reflective Educators and Professionals of Learning highlights the continuity of efforts to be reflective educators and professional who never stop learning. This conference will discuss and expand research into what needs to be learned and reflected, and study the characteristics of the practice of reflection among educators and the culture of professional learning.

Keynote Speakers

Catherine Lewis	Professor, Mills College, USA
Manabu Sato	Professor, Gakushuin University and Professor Emeritus, University of Tokyo, Japan
Didi Suryani	Professor, Indonesia University of Education, Indonesia
Jan Vermunt	Professor, University of Cambridge, UK

Strands

1. Teacher Professional Development
2. Action Research
3. Pedagogies and Teaching Strategies
4. Designing for Learning with Quality in Specific Subjects
5. Research on Lessons in Different Cultures
6. Issues about Leading Lesson and Learning Study
7. Learning Communities for School Reform
8. Developing Communities of Practices
9. Creating Knowledge in Practice
10. Student Learning and Development
11. Lesson and Learning Study in Pre-School
12. Lesson and Learning Study in Special Educational settings
13. Lesson and Learning Study in Higher Education

Important Dates

1 June 2014
Deadline for abstract submission

1 July 2014
Notification of acceptance

30 August 2014
Close of early bird registration

30 September 2014
Close of regular registration

24 November 2014
Expert Seminar (by invitation)

25 – 27 November 2014
WALS International Conference

28 November 2014
School visits

More information at www.upi.edu or email: wals2014@upi.edu